

Update on Main Library Custodial and Security Operations

San Francisco Public Library

Main Library Custodial and Security Augmented Support

Custodial

- Three temporary custodians have started, four more hired
- Permanent part time custodians working extra hours
- Additional temporary staff provides support for branches

Security

- Library's Head of Security filled by SFPD Sgt. Dave Hamilton
- Four temporary security guards started
- Two new Health and Safety Associates (HASA's) hired this week, bringing total staff to five

Partnerships

- DPW steam cleaning exterior of Main
- Dept. of Real Estate custodians providing temporary assistance with Main restrooms
- Civic Center Community Benefit District

SFPL Engineering

- Daily restroom equipment checks
- Air quality investigations, repairs, and improvements
- Main Library seismic moat – study and new design complete

Main Library Custodial and Security Augmented Support

Looking Ahead

- Controller's study and recommendations for Security and Custodial operations
- New software for incident reporting, analysis , and planning
- Expand steam cleaning to branches and 190 Ninth
- ADA improvements to restrooms and public spaces