

Library Journal Survey of Gay and Lesbian Holdings in U.S. Libraries GLC 28
Gay and Lesbian Center, San Francisco Public Library

Library Journal

[Survey of Gay and Lesbian Holdings in U.S. Libraries] (1995). 7 folders (.25 cubic feet).

In 1995, Library Journal surveyed U.S. libraries to determine the strengths and weaknesses in their gay and lesbian holdings and in their institutions' commitments to developing the subject area. This collection contains sample forms and cumulated statistics for the survey, along with Eric Bryant's article "Pride & Prejudice" (in Library Journal, June 15, 1995, p. 37-39) which summarized the results. (Donated by Eric Bryant, 1996).

1. [Survey Forms—Anonymous]
2. [Survey Forms]—"Overall Statistical Breakdowns"
3. [Summary results sorted by type of library, pre-4/26/95. Total responses =231]
4. [Summary results sorted by region/zip code. Total responses =231]
5. [Summary results with region and type of library. Total responses = 251]
6. [Summary results sorted by type of library, "4/26/95." Total responses = 254]
7. Library Journal, June 15, 1995. Includes Eric Bryant's article "Pride & Prejudice."