The screenshot shows the Rosetta Stone software interface for Spanish (Latin America) Level 1. The browser window title is "Rosetta Stone - Internet Explorer" and the URL is "http://launch.rossettastone.com/en/launch/rs3?a=189958&system_check_passed=true". The interface features a top navigation bar with the Rosetta Stone logo, the course title "Spanish (Latin America) Level 1", and a "Sign Out" button. Below this is a horizontal menu with four units: "Unit 1: Language Basics", "Unit 2: Greetings and Introductions", "Unit 3: Work and School", and "Unit 4: Shopping". The main content area displays "Unit 1 > Lesson 1 Core Lesson" with a "Start" button and a play icon, indicating a duration of "About 30 minutes". A progress bar below shows a sequence of lesson icons, with the first icon highlighted in red. The text "Your selected course for Unit 1" is centered. At the bottom, there are five photo thumbnails: a girl in a red jacket, a group of people reading, a scuba diver, a group of men, and a person holding a green cup. A button labeled "Explore all activities for Unit 1" is at the bottom center. The Windows taskbar at the very bottom shows various application icons and the system clock indicating 9:12 AM on 8/25/2014.
