A regular meeting of the San Francisco Public Library Commission will be held as follows:

DATE: Thursday, APRIL 21, 2022

TIME: 4:30 PM

PLACE: Koret Auditorium, Main Library, 100 Larkin Street, lower level

This meeting will be held in person at the location listed above. As authorized by California Government Code Section 54953(e) and Mayor Breed's 45th Supplement to her February 25, 2020 emergency proclamation, it is possible that some members of the Library Commission may attend this meeting remotely. In that event, those members will participate and vote by video. Members of the public may attend the meeting to observe and provide public comment at the physical meeting location listed above. Instructions for providing remote public comment are below.

Providing Public Comment:

Providing Public Comment Via the Webex computer interface

1. Click on the Participants button at the bottom right of your meeting window to view the Participants panel.
2. When it is time for public comment, click on the Raise Hand Icon to be placed in the queue to speak.
3. A raised hand will appear next to your name.
4. When the host unmutes you in the system, you will hear a beep. The host will inform you when your three minutes to speak begins. THIS IS

YOUR TIME TO SPEAK. You are encouraged to state your name clearly. You will have up to three minutes to provide your comments. Note, if you are using a Mac, you may not hear a prompt to begin speaking.

NOTE: The meeting host will address all commenters by the name or caller number that is displayed on the host screen. Meeting hosts will not assume any knowledge of commenters beyond what is displayed on the screen.

5. The meeting host is the official keeper of time. When your time expires, the host will state, "Three minutes." At that time, the host will mute you. Please click on the Raise Hand Icon to lower your hand.
6. The host will lower the raised hands of all commenters when the Commission President or presiding officer closes public comment on a given item.

NOTE: The function to lower hands in Webex is universal – all hands are lowered simultaneously, including those of panelists. Hands cannot be lowered by the host individually. The meeting host will lower all hands again after Commissioners have used the raise-hand functionality to coordinate their discussion on an item. Prospective commenters who raise their hands while the Commission is in discussion run the risk of having their hands lowered. Commenters are instructed to wait until the presiding officer calls for public comment on a specific agenda item to raise their hands to avoid confusion.

Providing Public Comment Via Phone

1. Dial in to 1-415-655-0001 or 1-408-418-9388 and enter the unique access code: 2488 336 1534 for the monthly meeting, and then press # twice.
2. No "Attendee ID Number" is required to participate.
3. You will hear a beep when you join the meeting. Please note, if you are calling in before the official meeting start time, the phone line will remain silent.
4. Wait for Public Comment to be announced for each individual agenda item.
5. When the Commission President calls for Public Comment, press '*3' to be added to the speaker line.
6. You will then hear "You have raised your hand to ask a question, please wait to speak until the host calls on you."
7. Ensure you are in a quiet location. Before you speak, mute the sound of any equipment around you, including televisions, radios, and computers. It is especially important that you mute your computer (if you are watching via the web link) so there is no echo sound when you speak.
8. If you decide to remove yourself from the comment queue, press '*3' – you will hear: "You have lowered your hand."

9. When it is your turn to offer comment, the host will unmute you and the system message will say “Your line has been unmuted.” The host will inform you when your three minutes to speak begins. THIS IS YOUR TIME TO SPEAK. You are encouraged to state your name clearly.
NOTE: The meeting host will address all commenters by the name or caller number that is displayed on the host screen. Meeting hosts will not assume any knowledge of commenters beyond what is displayed on the screen.
10. The meeting host is the official keeper of time. When your time expires, the host will state, “Three minutes.” At that time, the host will mute you. You will hear “Your line has been muted”
11. Participants who wish to speak on other public comment periods can stay on the meeting line and listen for the next public comment opportunity to be called.
12. BEST PRACTICES • Call from a quiet location • Speak slowly and clearly • Turn down any televisions or radios around you • Address the Commission as a whole, do not address individual Commissioners
13. The host will lower the raised hands of all commenters when the Commission President or presiding officer closes public comment on a given item.

NOTE: The function to lower hands in Webex is universal – all hands are lowered simultaneously, including those of panelists. Hands cannot be lowered by the host individually. The meeting host will lower all hands again after Commissioners have used the raise-hand functionality to coordinate their discussion on an item. Prospective commenters who raise their hands while the Commission is in discussion run the risk of having their hands lowered. Commenters are instructed to wait until the presiding officer calls for public comment on a specific agenda item to raise their hands to avoid confusion.

You may submit correspondence to the Commission concerning any item on the agenda. To ensure your correspondence is received by the Commission in advance of the meeting, please send an email to citylibrarian@sfpl.org by 5 PM on Wednesday, APRIL 20, 2022 or call 415-557-4236. Emailed comments will be posted on the Library Commission webpage.
