Providing Public Comment Via the Webex computer interface

1. Click on the Participants button at the bottom right of your meeting window to view the Participants panel.
2. When it is time for public comment, click on the Raise Hand Icon to be placed in the queue to speak.
3. A raised hand will appear next to your name.
4. When the host unmutes you in the system, you will hear a beep. The host will inform you when your three minutes to speak begins. THIS IS

YOUR TIME TO SPEAK. You are encouraged to state your name clearly. You will have up to three minutes to provide your comments. Note, if you are using a Mac, you may not hear a prompt to begin speaking.

NOTE: The meeting host will address all commenters by the name or caller number that is displayed on the host screen. Meeting hosts will not assume any knowledge of commenters beyond what is displayed on the screen.

5. The meeting host is the official keeper of time. When your time expires, the host will state, "Three minutes." At that time, the host will mute you. Please click on the Raise Hand Icon to lower your hand.
6. The host will lower the raised hands of all commenters when the Commission President or presiding officer closes public comment on a given item.

NOTE: The function to lower hands in Webex is universal – all hands are lowered simultaneously, including those of panelists. Hands cannot be lowered by the host individually. The meeting host will lower all hands again after Commissioners have used the raise-hand functionality to coordinate their discussion on an item. Prospective commenters who raise their hands while the Commission is in discussion run the risk of having their hands lowered. Commenters are instructed to wait until the presiding officer calls for public comment on a specific agenda item to raise their hands to avoid confusion.
