

Kodakan Photo Day at the Main Library – May 13, 2017

- Over 400 images were scanned and downloaded from 44 donors.
- Countless memories remembered and shared at Kodakan Photo Day.
- Images collected will be cataloged and uploaded to the online photo database (sfpl.org/sfphotos) by fall 2017.
- The images will be printed in a book by end of 2017 to preserve the legacy of San Francisco's Filipino-American community.

Selection of images scanned at Kodakan Photo Day

- Cross-departmental support for event: SF History Center, DIGI Center, Volunteer Services / Community Programs & Partnerships, Web Services / IT, Collections & Technical Services.
- Kodakan Photo Day funded by Friends of San Francisco Public Library & SoMA Pilipinas.
- Over the last 20 years, the Library conducted “Shades” projects in Western Addition, the Mission, Sunset District, Oceanview/Merced/Ingleside, Bayview/Hunters Point, the LGBTQI community and now the Filipino-American community with more than 2,200 local photos collected and added to the Library’s photo archives.

Selection of images scanned at Kodakan Photo Day