WELCOME

Dear Readers,

In celebration of the 11th anniversary of our One City One Book program, this year we chose to celebrate the unique history of the City of San Francisco itself, and how our current attitudes and values were reshaped by a series of events that took place decades ago.

Both new and longtime residents of San Francisco will find that there is much to learn from the exhaustive history and research that comprises Season of the Witch by David Talbot. Our literary and cultural program partners will help us share these stories through political dialogue, mayoral conversations and recollections, rock music discussion and performance, lively and interactive book discussions, crafts programs, demonstrations of historical materials, movies about the events of the times, and more.

Please join us in reading and discussing this extraordinary book and participating in the many upcoming and exciting events to come!

SEASON OF THE WITCH

ABOUT THE BOOK

The late 1960s through the mid-1980s was a time of great change in San Francisco, and much of this transformation came about as the result of some dark history. The Summer of Love gave way to public health challenges, the kidnapping of an heiress, killers who roamed the city and terrorized the citizens, a double murder at City Hall, a mass murder in Jonestown, Guyana and more, all part of the harrowing events of the '70s. Coupled with the extraordinary rock music of the time, these events led to new leadership, new heroes and new values that helped shape the City of today. David's Talbot's Season of the Witch tells a fascinating story of "Enchantment, Terror, and Deliverance in the City of Love." Please join us in reading and discussing this book, and attending some of the remarkable programs being held throughout the City in September and October.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

David Talbot is an author, journalist, media entrepreneur and now book publisher. He is the founder and former editor-in-chief of Salon, and has been hailed as a "pioneer of web publishing" by The New York Times. In addition to the national bestseller, Season of the Witch, he is the author of The New York Times bestseller, Brothers: The Hidden History of the Kennedy Years and Devil Dog: The Amazing True Story of the Man Who Saved America, an illustrated "pulp history" aimed at younger readers. His book, The Devil's Chessboard: Allen Dulles, the CIA, and The Rise of America's Secret Government, will be published by HarperCollins in October. Talbot was a senior editor at Mother Jones magazine, and has written for The New Yorker, Rolling Stone, Time, the Guardian and other publications. This fall, he will launch a new venture with Skyhorse Publishing, an imprint called Hot Books that will publish short, investigative books on the most burning topics.

FILMS

Thursdays at Noon

Koret Auditorium, Main Library, Lower Level

October 1

Milk (R, 128 min., 2008)

Using flashbacks from a statement recorded late in life and archival footage for atmosphere, this film traces Harvey Milk's career from his 40th birthday to his death.

October 8

Following Sean (NR, 87 min., 2005)

Thirty years later, award-winning filmmaker Ralph Arlyck returns to San Francisco in search of Sean, the boy who was the subject of his controversy-sparking 1969 documentary. A poignant look at life on the streets of Haight-Ashbury seen through the eyes of a four-year-old boy.

October 15

Harold and Maude (PG, 91 min., 1971)

A cult favorite! Young, rich, and obsessed with death, Harold finds himself changed forever when he meets lively septuagenarian Maude at a funeral.

October 22

The Cockettes (R, 100 min., 2002)

From 1969 to 1972, the Cockettes were San Francisco's own gender-bending, LSD-fueled, onstage party. Documentarians Weissman and Weber have crafted a record of a wondrous time and a wild group in The Cockettes. Shown in its original widescreen theatrical format.

October 29

Zodiac (R, 157 min., 2007)

A San Francisco cartoonist becomes an amateur detective obsessed with tracking down the Zodiac killer. Please note: This is a fictionalized account of a true story. The overall feel of the film is very scary, as it revolves around a serial killer.
