

Mission Bay Branch Library Study Rooms

Two study rooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis; reservations are not accepted. You can sign up for an available study room at the Reference Desk.

These rooms are intended for 1-hour study sessions for a broad number of library users. If an arriving user requests a room and you have been in a study room for 1 hour or more, you will be asked to clear the room for the next library user. To encourage the broadest possible use of the rooms, each user is limited to one session per day.

- Maximum occupancy: 2.
- Food and beverages are prohibited.
- If you leave the room during your study session, please:
 - ~Close the door behind you.
 - ~Take valuables with you. The library is not responsible for loss, theft or damage of any personal items left unattended.
 - ~Advise Reference Desk staff. An empty room may be considered available and may be reassigned to another library user.
 - ~Ask Reference Desk staff to let you back into the study room.
 - ~Must vacate study room at least 15 min prior to library closing.
