

The James C. Hormel LGBTQIA Center presents

THE COCKETTES

Acid Drag & Sexual Anarchy

Photo by Mary Ellen Mark.

Exhibition: March 12 – August 11, 2022

Hormel LGBTQIA Center, Main Library, 3rd Floor

SEE BACK FOR FULL LIST OF RELATED PROGRAMS

San Francisco Public Library

Main Library 100 Larkin Street (at Grove Street) (415) 557-4277 sfpl.org

 at least 30% post consumer content

Programs related to the exhibition
All programs take place at the Main Library

Recordings of select programs will be available at:
on.sfpl.org/cockettes

Opening Reception

Thursday, March 17, 6–7:30 p.m.
Hornell LGBTQIA Center, 3rd Floor

Celebrate this fabulous exhibition's opening with co-curators Fayette Hauser and Jim Van Buskirk as we travel back to San Francisco in the late 60's to early 70's to experience the avant-garde culture of the ground-breaking experimental gender-bending theater troupe, the Cockettes.

Book Celebration

Thursday, March 31, 6–7:30 p.m.
Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

Author, artist, actress, photographer and original Cockette, Fayette Hauser offers riveting stories, original photographs and more from her recently published book, The Cockettes: Acid Drag & Sexual Anarchy.

Doors open at 5:30 p.m.

Cockettes on Film

Thursday, April 28, 5–7:30 p.m.
Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

Experience the raucous, subversive camp that only the Cockettes could achieve in a rare, not-to-miss screening of three short films: Palace, Tricia's Wedding and Elevator Girls in Bondage.

Doors open at 4:45 p.m.

Spoken Word and Performance with Fayette Hauser and Vau de Vire Society

Thursday, May 26, 6–7:30 p.m.
Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

Enjoy a lively evening of Tales of the Cockette Life as told by Fayette Hauser, illustrated by live performances from members of San Francisco's Premier Cirque Troupe, Vau De Vire Society.

Doors open at 5:30 p.m.

Cockette Cabaret with Scrumbly & Co.

Thursday, June 23, 6–7:30 p.m.
Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

Listen to all the original songs and music of the Cockettes shows in a musical experience to remember with Cockette musical director and creator, Scrumbly Koldwyn along with lyricist Link Martin and Martin Worman.

Doors open at 5:30 p.m.

Closing Reception

Thursday, August 11, 6–7:30 p.m.
Hornell LGBTQIA Center, 3rd Floor

Enjoy one last view of the exhibition's closing with co-curators Fayette Hauser and Jim Van Buskirk in a celebration of the Cockettes' legacy.

San Francisco Public Library

Main Library 100 Larkin Street (at Grove Street) (415) 557-4277 sfpl.org

 at least 30% post consumer content