Joan Spratler Jackson

July 20, 1937 - March 8, 2022

Joan Spratler Jackson, beloved mother and aunt, passed away peacefully, at age 84, on March 7, 2022. She is survived by her cherished children, son Neil, and daughter Nicole. She also leaves behind her nephews Daniel McInerney, and Brian McInerney, and her niece Elizabeth McInerney. Joan was preceded in death by her father Joseph Spratler, her mother Martha Spratler (née Parker), and her sister Dorothy E. McInerney.

Joan's love and devotion to her children was rivaled only by her dedication to her 30-year career as a librarian and branch manager with the San Francisco Public Library, serving the City's diverse community.

In Joan's honor, and in support of her life's work, donations may be made to Children's Book Project, a women-led, 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that gives free books to children who need them for equity in literacy, learning, and life. 3433 21st Street, San Francisco CA 94110

Joan's loving and gentle spirit, clever wit, and deep appreciation for lifelong learning, literature, music, and the arts will live on through her family and friends. A private funeral at Holy Innocents Episcopal Church and interment at Woodlawn Memorial Park will be held in late March 2022. For full obituary
