Collecting organization:

Chinatown Branch, San Francisco Public Library
1135 Powell St.
San Francisco, CA. 94108
415-355-2888

Abstract: The contents of the subject file focus on the history of San Francisco's Chinatown as well as the issues and concerns of Chinese Americans living in Northern California. Subjects include (but are not limited to) authors, celebrities, crime, education, housing, labor, legislation, refugees, religions, stereotypes, and temples; subjects also relate more specifically to location, for example Housing in San Francisco's Chinatown. Subjects related to specific places, organizations, buildings, and public places are also available. To a lesser extent, the files also cover other Asian ethnicities in California. The material dates back as far back as the 1970's, however the scope of the content cover Chinese immigration to California all the way back to the 1800's.

Physical Location: Adult reference section.

Language of Materials: Chinese and English

Access: The collection is open to research. Some of the collection may be housed in staff-only area of the building. Please call the reference desk at 415-355-2888 in advance.

Publication Rights: Copyright has not been assigned to the San Francisco Public Library. All requests for permission to publish or quote from manuscripts must be submitted in writing to the City Archivist. Permission for publication is given on behalf of the San Francisco Public Library as the owner of the physical items.

Preferred Citation: [Identification of item/Title of folder], Chinatown Subject File, San Francisco Public Library, Chinatown Branch.

Arrangement: Alphabetical

Scope and Contents: The contents of the subject file focus on the history of San Francisco's Chinatown as well as the issues and concerns of Chinese Americans living in Northern California. Subjects include (but are not limited to) authors, celebrities, crime, education, housing, labor, legislation, refugees, religions, stereotypes, and temples; subjects also relate more specifically to location, for example Housing in San Francisco's

Chinatown. Subjects related to specific places, organizations, buildings, and public places are also available. To a lesser extent, the files also cover other Asian ethnicities in California. The material dates back only as far back as the 1970's, however the scope of the content cover Chinese immigration to California all the way back to the 1800's.

The range of the content include clippings from newspapers, journals, and magazines, reports written by individuals and neighborhood and government organizations, advertisements, forms, pamphlets and other ephemera from festivals, community meetings, and other events. A subject might have one or two items in its folder, or be so expansive that it is contained in several folders.
