Commit to a Fall Cleaning of Your Finances

Financial Planning Day is coming! Featuring a slate of great virtual workshops and 1:1 counseling from Certified Financial Planner® professionals—all free. This year's workshops include presentations on investing, managing cash flow, elder care needs, taxes and saving for college.

Financial Planning Day – Oct. 21, 10 a.m.–5 p.m.
More info and to register: on.sfpl.org/FPD10-21-23

Autumn Open Houses

Mark your calendar for North Beach Branch's Open House. Take a guided tour of the North Beach neighborhood, followed by a live performance, food tasting, book giveaways and fun activities for all ages. Learn more about fire safety with SFFD.

Meet your neighbors at the Park Branch Open House. Make a custom button and a Halloween trick-or-treat bag, view our Haight Ashbury collection, enjoy a snack and relax in our play area for young children. Groove to the sounds of Purple Fox and the Heebie Jeebies, part of Tricycle Music Fest. Coffee and refreshments at 4 p.m.

Stroll on down to the Noe Valley Branch's Open House. Kids can play at our five creative play stations at our Big Play Date and get their faces painted. Learn the history behind our gorgeous 1916 building. Enjoy refreshments, coffee and tea in our fragrant garden. Make buttons, hear live music and enter a raffle for fun prizes.

At Marina Branch's Open House, watch a performance by Danza Azteca Xitlalli de San Francisco, followed by a celebration including complimentary popcorn, cotton candy, mini pumpkin decorating and bingo with fabulous prizes. Plus, face painting and a community resource fair.

Open Houses:

North Beach Branch – Oct. 7, 11 a.m.–4 p.m.

Park Branch – Oct. 28, 1–5 p.m.

Noe Valley Branch – Oct. 21, 10 a.m.–2 p.m.

Marina Branch – Oct. 21, 11 a.m.–3 p.m.

Strategic Plan Update

Join us at our Commission Meeting to hear about our community outreach process and how the findings will inform our final strategic plan. Oct. 19, 4:30 p.m., Main Library, Koret Auditorium, Lower Level or tune in from home: on.sfpl.org/oct19mtg.

Tricycle Music Fest Returns

Rock out this fall as we kick off our 12th annual Tricycle Music Fest! Families are invited to the Library for a unique early literacy experience. We are excited to host some of the best Grammy® winning artists in the category of children's music. Plus, after each event, one lucky concertgoer will win a shiny red tricycle to roll away in style.

This year's lineup includes the change-making music of 2023 Grammy® Award winners, Alphabet Rockers, with a kickoff concert at Merced Branch. They also rock the east side at Bernal Heights. Next up is a Library favorite local band, La Familia Peña-Govea, who will perform at Excelsior's Sunday Streets. The following weekend, catch them at Richmond Branch.

Proving that music and reading go hand in hand, 2015 Latin Grammy® winner and best-selling author, Lucky Diaz, will share his music and writing at the Main Children's Center and a special park performance at Parque Niños Unidos (23rd St and Treat Ave).

Tricycle Music Fest wraps up with the progressive funk of Bay Area's very own Purple Fox and the Heebie Jeebies. They'll share their sweet sounds at Portola and give an encore performance the same day at Park Branch's Open House. Learn more at sfpl.org/tricycle.

Tricycle Music Fest 2023 Lineup

Alphabet Rockers – Oct. 7, 11 a.m., Merced; Oct. 7, 3 p.m., Bernal Heights Branch

Purple Fox and the Heebie Jeebies – Oct. 28, 11 a.m., Portola; Oct. 28, 3 p.m., Park Branch

Litquake Presents

Your favorite litfest is back, in a big way—and even better news, SFPL is playing host to some of the most exciting programs.

Beyond Combat Narratives: The New Wave of Military Writing – Writers Abby Murray, Andria Williams, Lauren Kay Johnson, Liam Curley, M.C. Armstrong and Steven Moore discuss emerging trends in the military genre and the challenges and importance of writing against masculine traditions and combat-driven narratives. – Oct. 15, 12 p.m., Main Library, Koret Auditorium

Graphic Memoirs Panel – Hear from a panel of memoirists who tell their stories in a visual way. Featuring Amy Kurzweil (Flying Couch: A Graphic Memoir); Thien Pham (Family Style: Memories of an American from Vietnam); Julia Wertz (Impossible People: A Completely Average Recovery Story) and Rina Ayuyang (The Man in The McIntosh Suit). – Oct. 14, 12 p.m., Main Library, Koret Auditorium

Cleve Jones: When We Rise: My Life in the Movement – A not-to-miss evening with Jones reading from his book, followed by a discussion with Dr. Tyler TerMeer, Chief Executive Officer of the San Francisco AIDS Foundation. Jones is an American human rights activist who led the 2009 National March for Equality in Washington, DC. He also served on the Advisory Board of the American Foundation for Equal Rights, which challenged California's Proposition 8 in the US Supreme Court. – Oct. 17, 5:30 p.m., Main Library, Koret Auditorium

Let Freedom Read

Take part in Banned Books Week, Oct. 1–7. In the Main Library's atrium, cozy up in our Banned Book Nook and snap a selfie while reading something wonderfully "subversive", like Charlotte's Web. Censored titles will be given away for free and available for check out.

Visit exhibits at the Main: Censoring Creation: Freedom and Restriction in Art, Music and Sports, on the 4th Floor and Imagine Being Arrested for Selling Poetry: Shig Murao, City Lights and HOWL in the History Center, 6th Floor. The branches also join the fun with their own creative displays featuring banned books. See them all!

Explore Your China Roots During Family History Month with a New Database

October is Family History Month, and the Library has a new database to help you search for your ancestors: My China Roots. A leading database for Chinese genealogy, My China Roots counts over 200 million searchable Chinese ancestors. It contains one of the largest collections of digitized Chinese family tree books (zupus) and other records from China. And since there are over 50 million people of Chinese descent residing outside of the People's Republic of China, My China Roots has collected immigration records, overseas Chinese burials and obituaries, overseas Chinese directories and association records and more from countries all around the world. My China Roots is an excellent complement to the other genealogy databases provided by SFPL: Ancestry Library Edition, Fold3 Library Edition, HeritageQuest Online and Newspaper ARCHIVE Library Edition. See sfpl.org/genealogy for more information on all the digital and physical resources the library has that can help with genealogy research.

Related Programs:

San Francisco Genealogy Group: An Intro to Chinese Genealogy Research – Oct. 11, 1 p.m.
RSVP: on.sfpl.org/genealogy10-11-23

Heart to Heart: Deepening Conversations with Loved Ones – Oct. 24, 6 p.m., Main Library, Latino/Hispanic Room

Halloween Printing Event

The Book Arts & Special Collections Center is pleased to present our first ever Halloween Printing Event on Saturday, Oct. 7 from 2–4 p.m. on the 6th Floor of the Main Library. Experience hands-on letterpress printing on the Library's 1909 Albion hand press and take home a broadside keepsake.

We will print an image from our own collection, with the assistance of printers from the American Printing History Association's NorCal Chapter. Everyone is invited but keepsakes are limited to the first 100 guests. The Marjorie G. and Carl W. Stern Book Arts & Special Collections Center is home to the Robert Grabhorn Collection on the History of Printing & the Development of the Book, the Richard Harrison Collection of Calligraphy & Lettering, the Schmulowitz Collection of Wit & Humor, the George M. Fox Collection of Early Children's Books and the Little Maga/Zine Collection. Learn more about the collections by visiting the Library's website at sfpl.org/bookarts, and make your own discoveries by visiting us seven days a week, no appointment necessary. We are free and open to the public! For more information, please contact Book Arts & Special Collections at (415) 557-4560.

Halloween Printing Event – Oct. 7, 2–4 p.m., Main Library, 6th Floor, San Francisco History/Book Arts & Special Collections Centers

Celebrate 50 Years of Planet Drum

San Francisco-based Planet Drum was founded by Peter Berg and Judy Goldhaft in 1973. Berg was involved in civil rights activism and the local Diggers group with Goldhaft before focusing purely on environmentalist work. A 1972 United Nations Conference on the Environment led him to develop the concept of a "bioregion", which has spread across the planet as a way to think about caring for the environment. Planet Drum has used art and poetry to inspire environmental activists. The celebration with Planet Drum features artists, poets, cartographers and historians discussing the effect the organization has had on their work. You'll be inspired to take your own environmentalist actions after this celebration.

Additionally, Planet Drum's "Art Bundles" are also being shown in the Main Library's 5th Floor Environmental Center until Jan. 6, 2024.

Exhibition: 50 Years of Planet Drum – Through Jan. 7, Main Library, Stegner Environmental Center, 5th Floor

Panel: Planet Drum – Oct. 14, 3 p.m., Main Library, Koret Auditorium

Filipino Childrens Club, 1936, Celestino Tagimacruz Alfafara Papers.

Collections Corner: Filipino American History in the Archives

Happy American Archives Month! The San Francisco History Center is the official archives for the City & County of San Francisco. In addition to collecting and preserving City Records, the Center rounds out the City's narrative by providing access to personal and organizational papers, correspondence, diaries and photographs. In honor of Filipino American History Month, we spotlight the Celestino Tagimacruz Alfafara Papers.

Born in the Philippines, Celestino T. Alfafara (1897–1990) immigrated to the United States in 1929. Alfafara challenged the California Alien Land Law with the victorious test case he filed in 1945. The case went all the way to the California State Supreme Court, Alfafara v. Fross, and the victory enabled Filipinos to gain the right own property in California. In his personal life, Alfafara was married to Juanita Cayton and raised two children. Alfafara was an active member of Filipino heritage organizations including the Caballeros de Dimas-Alang, a Filipino American fraternal organization. The collection includes photographs, scrapbooks and correspondence. Alfafara's granddaughter, knowing the importance of these records and their enduring value, donated them to the archives in 2019.

We encourage you to visit any archive for American Archives Month. Keep the San Francisco History Center, 6th Floor, Main Library on the top of your list! on.sfpl.org/sf-history.

Javier Zamora's Solito

If you liked Solito by Javier Zamora, then you will like these memoirs and life stories, which explore themes of identity, migration and the harrowing experiences of children and family immigrants, detailing their journeys to different countries, including the United States, while shedding light on issues related to refugees and undocumented immigrants.

The Naked Don't Fear the Water: An Underground Journey with Afghan Refugees by Matthieu Aikin

In 2016, Afghan Omar and journalist Matthieu Aikin fled war-torn Afghanistan, documenting their perilous refugee journey to Europe.

My Boy Will Die of Sorrow: A Memoir of Immigration From the Front Lines by Efrén C. Olivares

A human rights lawyer shares gripping family separation stories and challenges America's nationhood, urging empathy and compassion for immigrants.

Our Migrant Souls: A Meditation on Race and the Meanings and Myths of "Latino" by Héctor Tobar

A revealing journey across America uncovers the true meaning of "Latino" today. Tobar's Pulitzer-winning title challenges racist notions about "Latino" in the US, weaving personal experiences and Latinx students' stories.

Map of Hope and Sorrow: Stories of Refugees Trapped in Greece by Helen Benedict and Eyad Awwadannan

A powerful collection of stories from refugees stuck in asylum limbo in Greece.

Solito, Solita: Crossing Borders with Youth Refugees from Central America edited by Steven Mayers and Jonathan Freedman

Harrowing oral histories of youth refugees, traveling alone for hundreds of miles seeking safety in the United States.

Javier Zamora

An Intimate Look at AIDS Portraits from the San Francisco Bay Area, 1989-95

During the height of the AIDS epidemic in the late 1980s and early 90s, photographer Jeannie O'Connor captured intimate portraits of AIDS patients during her visits to various Centers for AIDS Services in the Bay Area. As a guest artist for Sharon Siskin's Positive Art classes, which provided free visual art classes to students living with HIV/AIDS, once a year O'Connor would set up a makeshift studio in the classroom and bring in a view camera loaded with Polaroid film.

Experience this intimate presentation of O'Connor's black-and-white photographs up close, in two locations at the Main Library— in the San Francisco History Center on the 6th Floor and in the James C. Hormel LGBTQIA+ Center on the 3rd Floor.

Photographs on view are a selection from the Jeannie O'Connor AIDS Self-Portraits Collection in the James C. Hormel LGBTQIA's Center's archives.

AIDS Portraits by Jeannie O'Connor: San Francisco Bay Area, 1989-95 – Oct. 14–Feb. 29, 2024, Main Library, San Francisco History Center, 6th Floor and James C. Hormel LGBTQIA+ Center, 3rd Floor

World Premiere of New Work by Artist-in-Residence James Q. Chan

James Q. Chan

Step into THE MAIN°, by filmmaker and Library artist-in-residence James Q. Chan, is a series of immersive 360-degree documentary films, where our shared experience of a beloved institution comes alive beyond the bookshelves. Follow staff and patrons as they navigate you through the various departments and services for a behind-the-scenes perspective within the bustling Library ecosystem. Captured using high-definition 360° cameras, this observational film explores the interconnectedness of our collective memory of place and the role of San Francisco Public Library in fostering a sense of community and cultural heritage through an immersive, full-circle visual experience.

Chan is an Emmy-nominated producer and director based in San Francisco. In 2022, Chan was one of four inaugural artists-in-residence at the Library, a program administered by the San Francisco Arts Commission with funding from the Library.

Interactive: Step into THE MAIN° – Oct. 19, 5 p.m., Main Library, Steve Silver Beach Blanket Babylon Music Center, 4th Floor

¡VIVA! Programs in October

Curated by Julián Delgado Lopera. Dance party follows at Mother (formerly Esta Noche).

Oct. 26, 5:30 p.m., Main Library, Koret Auditorium

Celebrate Día de los Muertos

Join the Library for vibrant Día de los Muertos celebrations! Gather as a community to honor departed loved ones. Renowned San Francisco artist and activist Calixto Robles will lead the creation of a stunning community altar at both the Bayview and Bernal Heights branches. Add an ofrenda (offering) to the communal altar. Bring flowers, incense, cherished photos, heartfelt notes, sealed food or drink or a meaningful keepsake.

Additionally, the air will resonate with captivating music by René y Familia, a three-generation musical family, at Bernal Heights. Enjoy enchanting music blending original and traditional bilingual melodies. Drawing from folk traditions like cumbia and ranchera, René y Familia creates an unforgettable celebration.

At Bayview Branch, get creative with printmaking. Discover your artistic side with Ali Blum's guidance. Craft a striking three-color reduction art print using styrofoam, capturing the spirit of the occasion.

Together, we remember and honor those who have left an indelible mark on our lives.

On View

Jewett Gallery, Main Library, Lower Level

Mission Gráfica: Reflecting a Community in Print
The San Francisco graphic arts workshop, Mission Gráfica, presents an exhibition comprised of 43 prints that reflect an enormous variety of styles, approaches and sensibilities. The artists in the show range from non-professional and emerging artists to well-known figures such as Enrique Chagoya, Carmen Lomas Garza, Mildred Howard, Jean La Marr, Nancy Hom, Rupert Garcia and Ester Hernandez. Through Dec. 17

Other Exhibits, Main Library

AIDS Portraits by Jeannie O'Connor

This exhibition features portraits taken by Jeannie O'Connor at four Centers for AIDS services in San Francisco, Oakland and Richmond from 1989–1995. As a guest artist for Sharon Siskin's Positive Art classes, Jeannie set up a make-shift studio and brought in a view camera with Polaroid film. Polaroid prints were passed around and enjoyed, leading to a festive communal experience for the participants and families. Oct. 14, 2023–Feb. 29, 2024, San Francisco History Center, 6th Floor and James C. Hormel LGBTQIA Center, 3rd Floor

50 Years of Planet Drum

Explore Planet Drum's archival “Art Bundles,” comprised of individual essays, poetry, graphics and posters, each printed separately and then assembled unbound into an envelope. Planet Drum was founded in 1973 in San Francisco to provide an effective grassroots approach to ecology that emphasizes sustainability, community self-determination and regional self-reliance. There will be several rotations during the course of the exhibit, so check back to see what each new Bundle contains. Through Jan. 7, 2024, Wallace Stegner Environmental Center, 5th Floor

Exhibits at the Branches

Historic SF Posters Highlight Haight-Ashbury

Starting October 28, Park Branch will, once again, display a remarkable collection of Haight-Ashbury Street Fair posters. The collection, spanning from 1979–2010, captures the vibrant history and spirit of the iconic neighborhood.

In April 1978, the Haight-Ashbury community, alongside Supervisor Harvey Milk, organized and hosted the inaugural Haight-Ashbury Street Fair. Pablo Heisling and Robert Leon, two of the fair's organizers, began donating posters to the Park Branch in 1979. The collection grew over the years and became an integral part of the Library's historical archive.

TeenTober Fuels Skills and Passions

October is one of the busiest times of the year, midway through the fall semester and in the full swing of clubs, sports and jobs. Libraries serve as a safe space for teens with a variety of needs like doing research, learning a new skill or just hanging out with friends. SFPL celebrates TeenTober, a nationwide celebration supported by the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA) and hosted by libraries, by increasing in person college and life skills leadership workshops with Study Smart Tutors, featuring teen-only studio spaces at The Mix and welcoming paid school year interns in partnership with SF YouthWorks. Follow instagram.com/themixatsfpl for features and updates in October and beyond.

Community Baby Shower Is Coming

Are you expecting or have a tiny new member of your family? We want to celebrate with you at our Community Baby Shower. All expecting families and those with little ones aged 24 months and under are welcome. Enjoy a storytime, a play area, crafts and light refreshments. Our guests include community agencies eager to let new families know about resources available to them. Plus, the first 250 families will receive a gift for attending the event with your baby.

Community Baby Shower – Oct. 28, 2 p.m., Chinatown Branch

Brown Handler Residents
at Lit Crawl Are Back

Oct. 21, 6:30 p.m., Self Edge, 569 Valencia St.

One of the most anticipated literary nights of the year, San Francisco’s Lit Crawl, is back! Each year Friends participates in this massive, one-night literary pub crawl throughout Mission District, hosted by Litquake. For the fourth year in a row, we feature the latest cohort of Brown Handler residents, Sam Julian, Brendan McHugh, René Peña-Govea, Flávia Stefani and Yeva Johnson. Lit Crawl SF brings together more than 500 authors and close to 10,000 fans for the world’s largest free pop-up literary event. Starting in 2004, Lit Crawl cultivates a unique, resonant brand: smart and silly, worldly and wacky events presented in usual (bars, cafes, galleries and bookstores) and unusual venues (tattoo parlors, barbershops and laundromats). The Brown Handler Residents will be reading at Self Edge, a denim store on Valencia St. The Brown Handler Residency is a yearlong program for five writers and made possible through the generous support of authors Lisa Brown and Daniel Handler. Writers are provided a free studio space at the Friends office right in Potrero Hill overlooking Jackson Park. This Residency works to deepen the connection between writers, librarians and our library community. Over the past four years, the Residency has created a rich community of writers across all backgrounds and genres, enriching the Friends’ offices and growing amazing talents. Reflecting the Library’s mission as a democratic, public and accessible institution, Friends is committed to supporting writers from a wide spectrum of ethnicity, race, gender, sexual orientation and genre. For more information and to find out more about the projects the residents are working on, visit friendssfpl.org/residency. To learn more about the event, go to friendssfpl.org/events.
