

SAN FRANCISCO PUBLIC LIBRARY

2024 ADULT + TEEN
SUMMER STRIDE
GUIDE

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR SUMMER WITH SAN FRANCISCO PUBLIC LIBRARY!

Inside these pages you'll find loads of ideas for summer fun. From juicy reading lists, to author talks and artist workshops, from eResources designed to help you pick up a new skill to free film and music streaming platforms—the best things in life are free with your San Francisco Public Library card!

THINGS TO CHECK OUT THIS SUMMER

Vinyl is spinning hot

Get in on this retro trend—why don't you take out some of our vinyl for a spin? Visit the Audiovisual Center, located on the first floor of the Main, or one of our Vinyl Destination collections located at Marina, Eureka Valley/Harvey Milk Memorial, Park, Western Addition and Mission Bay branches.

Get to know the Bay Area's rich music scene with Bay Beats, our local music streaming platform Albums from almost 150 top-rated solo musicians and bands in popular genres—jazz to soul, rap to rock, classical to world—are available for anyone to listen to, with or without a library card. Be sure to check out the staff-curated playlists and artists' pages for information about upcoming gigs.

Visit more than a dozen of the Bay Area's best museums and cultural attractions for free with Discover & Go

The online platform allows SFPL cardholders to reserve passes and print tickets at home or at a neighborhood library.

Hit the road and discover California's natural beauty

Check out a California State Parks Pass, which gives you free access to more than 200 participating state parks.

Go See Ralph Chessé: A San Francisco Century

On the second floor of the iconic Coit Tower, there's a modest mural by Ralph Chessé, a prolific but little-known San Francisco artist. This is his most visible and enduring legacy, but Chessé was a true Renaissance man. The Library partnered with curator Glen Helfand and the Chessé family to tell the untold story of a pioneering artist's deep connection to San Francisco through a diverse range of artwork.

Born in 1900 in New Orleans, Chessé spent the bulk of his life in the Bay Area, and his artistic endeavors—painting, sculpture and notably, marionette production and performance—reflect numerous touchstones of the Bay Area's cultural and social life, from the Works Progress Administration (WPA), theater, television and rock and roll. Until his passing in 1991, his life was fueled by creative endeavors, exploring different styles of art, as well as theatrical pursuits. His expressive, exquisitely carved puppets enacted everything from Shakespeare's tragedies to the animal kingdom educator Brother Buzz, the main character of a beloved children's show that ran from 1953–1969 on mainstream television and was syndicated nationally. On view at the Main Library, Ralph Chessé: A San Francisco Century offers an overview of the artist's work, including rare puppets, paintings, woodcuts, photographs and documents that highlight his unique and under-recognized place in the City's history.

TRAVEL WITH EBOOKS, DIGITAL MAGAZINES AND MORE

Traveling this summer? You can leave your paper books and magazines at home by taking eBooks and digital magazines on your favorite mobile device. Download them before you leave for your trip and read them anywhere in the world.

In addition to your summer fiction and nonfiction reads, Boundless, Hoopla Digital and Libby (Overdrive's app) offer popular and reputable travel guides from Lonely Planet, Fodor's, Culture Smart, DK Eyewitness Travel, Berlitz Pocket Guides and Moon Travel. Hiking, biking and camping enthusiasts can travel light by loading titles from The Falcon Guides and 101 Hikes onto a smartphone. If you prefer magazines, SFPL offers travel, cooking and fashion titles in full digital color on Flipster, PressReader and Kono (Chinese and Japanese).

Download these for free from your app store. Please visit a librarian if you need assistance with these eResources.

Learn How to Say "Thank You" Like the Locals

It's not too late to learn some new words or phrases to make the most of your international summer travels. Head over to sfpl.org/elearning and explore the "Language Learning" section to connect to the Mango Languages and Rosetta Stone platforms with an active SFPL card and PIN and start practicing now. Both tools are excellent in their own way. Mango Languages offers an interactive set of courses with more than 70 languages. Rosetta Stone shares immersive images and audio in 30 languages. Why not try both? If time is running out, focus on keywords that will help you feel confident in interacting with others and getting around. Practice on your personal computer or download the apps to your mobile devices to continue learning even upon arrival at your destination.
