

Career Online High School

Natalie Enright
Literacy Manager, The Bridge at Main
Thursday, July 18, 2024
San Francisco Library Commission

What is Career Online High School?

- Career Online High School (COHS) is an accredited fully online high school diploma program.
- Adults earn their high school diploma while gaining real-world career skills.
- Previous high school credits & GED credits can be transferred.
- FREE for San Francisco residents and SFPL patrons.

Key Features of COHS

- Offers flexibility for adults with busy schedules.
- Provides career certificates in fields like childcare, office management, and more.
- Includes access to academic coaches and support.
- COHS is competency-based and follows a no-fail approach, allowing students to retake assessments as many times as necessary.
- COHS aims to reduce educational trauma through support, career focus, and their no-fail approach.
- Lessons are read aloud for students with learning differences or IEPs.

History at San Francisco Public Library

- Launched: 2015.
- Goal: Help adults achieve their educational and career aspirations.

Program Impact

- Graduates: More than 100 individuals have graduated since inception.
- Community Impact: Empowering adults, enhancing job opportunities, and supporting economic growth.

Congratulations
CLASS OF
2023 & 2024
Best wishes for a bright future!

Graduate Testimonial: Evelyn Agustin's Gratitude

“I have no words to tell you how special and motivating this celebration was.”

-Evelyn Agustin

Call to Action

Strategies to Increase Participation:

- Alumni Network: Establish for mentoring and community building.
- Employer Partnerships: Create employment pathways with local businesses.
- Community Outreach: Partner with local organizations.
- Marketing Campaigns: Continue to utilize social media, local media and the library's website.

