

Somewhere someone has said and done something beautiful

Out of the midnight blue as a gentle breeze tames a turbulent winds and the pouring rain

Then as the rainy clouds parted the sunshine smiled upon all of the people of the world

Then the eyes of the sky opened gave us a beautiful day in the sun

Then people open their eyes with a profound respect and insight for life

Then people open their hearts and gave love that filled other people hearts with appreciation for love and life

Then people open their minds the reservoir of wisdom and poured Golden knowledge into the mainstreams of society as hearts of love in rhythm with life get ready to sail the ships of friendship will sail carrying the cargo of love trust unity happiness brotherhood friendship faith and understanding and as the raging seas mellowed down from the love touch waves tranquility and sweet

Serenity is the music we hear the universal skyways are the airways to communication and as free as the sea I've touched upon every shore

as my desires to rise to the Golden Heights inspiration elevated my heart as I soared above every mountain

I spoke of unity and peace for all mankind and the skies were peacefully filled in fire in rain and darkness in times of storms in times of uncertainty

I know that there will be sunshine because
