SF Cartoon Art Museum

- This year's event coincided with our 2nd annual Main Open House whose goal was to offer compelling public program for Tenderloin and SOMA families.
- Main lower level, atrium and Main Childrens Center were activated for the afternoon.
- Highlights of the event included a photobooth for fun family photos, featured comic artist, Wahab Algarmi; Mr. Library Mychal Threets, SF Comic Arts Museum and Resilience, eco super heroine.

Gene Luen Yang calls Almost Sunset a "funny, endearing, and an intimate look at a Muslim family." Almost Sunset follows a young Muslim American boy during Ramadan as he finds the balance between his family traditions and his secular middle school life.

Literary Ambassador and PBS Resident Librarian, Mychal Threets

- Resident librarian for PBS and PBS Kids, Mr. Mychal Threets delighted youth and their families with a dynamic storytime.
