Request for Worldwide Permission to Publish Pictorial Materials in a Book

I hereby request permission to reproduce and publish the following pictorial items physically owned by San Francisco Public Library:

I wish to use the material for the following purpose. Please include a title of the book (all media and formats whether now known or hereafter devised) and description of the project:

I understand that the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or of other reproductions of copyrighted materials. It is not my intention to publish or otherwise reproduce any of the materials listed on this form which are possibly subject to copyright without first having obtained written permission from (a) the copyright owner, the heirs, or assigns and (b) from San Francisco Public Library, owner of the original materials.

The History Center at the San Francisco Public Library charges a fee for visual materials used in worldwide publications. The use fee is $45.00 for each image, worldwide rights, all media and formats (whether now known or hereafter devised), for the life of the product. The above rights may be exercised in all media and formats. I understand that permission to publish is contingent upon payment of the fee.
