

NOTE:

The City must provide notice of the cancellation of a meeting to the public as soon as reasonably possible. Admin. Code § 67.6(g). To the extent time permits, the policy body should post the cancellation notice on its website and at the San Francisco Main Library Government Information Center. Admin. Code § 67.6(g). It is desirable also to post the cancellation notice at the meeting site and at the departmental office. If time permits, the policy body should mail notice of the cancellation to those members of the public who have requested in writing to receive meeting agendas. Admin. Code § 67.6(g). Though not legally required, we recommend that bodies give notice of the cancellation to parties with a matter on the agenda and to persons who normally receive agendas by e-mail.
