INTERVIEW WITH ELIZABETH FISHER GORDON
29 SEPTEMBER 1978

At Mrs. Gordon's suite at the Bel Air, 1330 University Avenue, Berkeley, Calif.

Interviewer: Jesse J. Warr, III
Transcriber: Mary Wells

BEGIN TAPE 1

JW: Let's start with your birthdate and birthplace.
EG: I was born in San Francisco on November 2, 1897.
JW: Your full maiden name was...?
EG: Mary Elizabeth Fisher.
JW: But you have gone by "Elizabeth" most of your life?
[indicates "yes"] Did you have a nickname as a child?
EG: Betty.
JW: Betty?
EG: No, not as a child. They called me "Sister." And then when I went to high school I was called "Betty" because one of the girls used the word "Liz" to me, and I didn't like "Liz." So I said, "If you're going to

I'm a ^{man} of few surprises so it will come as no surprise to ~~you~~ you that what I'm about to say constitutes an announcement of my candidacy for Supervisor of District 5. For all I know, I may be the proverbial straw that broke the camel's back for I'm sure by now that the list of candidates is close to equaling the list of eligible voters. The true test of Democracy is when anybody can run for anything and in this case, almost everybody is. Well, they say Democracy is a participatory process so you can't say we weren't warned...

I've been running for so many things for so long in this city that I wear a pair of ~~shoes~~ ^{Shoes} to work...after all, you can never tell when another opportunity will present itself...
