1:00 PM
Biblioteca de la Misión,
300 Bartlett St.

MIÉRCOLES, 23 DE MAYO

6:00 PM
Biblioteca de la Misión
300 Bartlett St.

La Biblioteca Pública de San Francisco con el Departamento de Obras Públicas planea renovar la sucursal de la Misión. La última renovación de la sucursal ocurrió hace casi 20 años y mucha de su infraestructura necesita ser reemplazada. Esta renovación es la oportunidad de mejorar nuestro servicio a la comunidad.

Conozca los arquitectos, de nos su opinión acerca de la renovación y díganos cómo podemos mejorar nuestra sucursal.

Friday, May 18 • 6PM-9PM • ROQUE DALTON TRIBUTE NIGHT Roque Dalton is considered one of El Salvador's most important voices. His work helped to shape a generation of Central American poets and revolutionaries, and his influence continues to be felt far beyond Latin America. For the second consecutive year, Acción Latina will honor Roque's legacy with a special tribute night. Join us for an evening filled with food, music, poetry readings, and discussion of why Roque's poems remain as relevant today as ever. Hosted by Leticia Hernandez and Jessica Mejia, with discussion facilitated by Professor Felix Kury and music provided by DJ L7. • Acción Latina, 2958 24th St., San Francisco.

Friday, May 18 • 6PM-8PM • CALIXTO ROBLES & ALI BLUM | GALLERY RECEPTION Ruth's Table is pleased to present "The Awakening," a show by Calixto Robles and Alexandra Blum, both accomplished artists in their own right. Calixto, a self-taught artist, has displayed at The Mexican Museum in Paris and La Biblioteca in Cuba as well as local institutions such as the Oakland Museum of California and the de Young Museum. Alexandra received her BFA from Cornell University in painting and her MFA in printmaking from Washington University in St. Louis. She has had residencies at Curtiduría Print shop in Oaxaca, Mexico, and the de Young Museum and she teaches art at Drew School in San Francisco. • Ruth's Table, 3171 21st St., San Francisco

Saturday, May 19 • 1-2PM MISSION BRANCH LIBRARY COMMUNITY MEETINGS San Francisco Public Library and San Francisco Public Works are planning to renovate the Mission Branch Library. The branch was last updated nearly 20 years ago and many of the building systems need replacing. This upgrade provides an opportunity to bring this historic branch into the 21st century. Meet the architects and share ideas for restoring and improving our neighborhood branch.

Saturday, May 19 • 1PM-4PM • "SYMBOLS OF RESISTANCE" FILM SCREENING "Symbols of Resistance" is a recent historic documentary about the Chicano movement for self-determination and national liberation. It focuses on our struggle in Colorado. It depicts the student struggle, communal struggles, land struggles, struggles against Police brutality and struggles against the Border Patrol. Join us for a viewing of this acclaimed film and discussion about our ongoing struggle for self-determination and national liberation. • DeBug Community Center, 701 Lenzen Ave., San Francisco

Saturday, May 19 • 5PM-6:08PM • Seniors BEGINNINGS: BLACK CINEMA (1977-1981) Curated by Roxie Staff Picks, this exciting 16mm brings audiences the rarely seen works of black female luminaries Julie Woods & Monona Wali. Featuring "African Nun", "Killing Time", "F" and "Grey Area." Don't miss this opportunity to experience revolutionary art using film to intertwine the political and visual language of Black history. You will be groundbreaking these four shorts. • Roxie Theater, 3117 16th St.

Wednesday, May 23 • Free (donations appreciated) SF PUBLIC TALK: MEMORY How do we tell history now compared to how we tell history now? Between archival sources and oral history.
