

The Public film

San Francisco Public Library

San Francisco Coalition on Homelessness

Glide's Center for Social Justice

March 10, 2019

ALEC BALDWIN EMILIO ESTEVEZ JENA MALONE TAYLOR SCHILLING CHRISTIAN SLATER
GABRIELLE UNION JEFFREY WRIGHT MICHAEL K. WILLIAMS CHE "RHYMEFEST" SMITH JACOB VARGAS

EVERY STORY MATTERS

San Francisco Public Library, the Coalition on Homelessness and GLIDE's Center for Social Justice present a special screening of The Public, followed by a discussion with Emilio Estevez.

Sunday, March 10, 2019

5 p.m.

Glide Memorial Church

330 Ellis Street, San Francisco

The Public is about downtown Cincinnati librarians Stuart Goodson (Emilio Estevez) and Myra (Jena Malone) who see their regular winter day shaken up when homeless patrons decide to take shelter in their library for the night. What starts as a peaceful sit-in quickly escalates into a face-off with the police and the media. This David versus Goliath story, tackles some of our nation's most challenging issues, homelessness, and mental illness and sets the drama inside one of the last bastions of democracy-in-action: your public library.

San Francisco Public Library

The event is free and open to everyone regardless of housing status, but please register at <https://tinyurl.com/GLIDepublic>.

