Celebrate Southwest Asian and North African Heritage

SWANA honors the diverse cultures, traditions and histories of Southwest Asian and North African heritage. Throughout the month, enjoy an array of lectures, films, cooking demonstrations and performance programs for all ages at every library location.

In recent years, the Library has celebrated Middle Eastern Heritage. In order to recognize more of our residents and the region, we are renaming our celebration SWANA. Many universities are adopting this language for use with their Middle Eastern studies programs. Southwest Asian and North African is a way to describe the region in a geographical, non-political, non-religious and non-Eurocentric way.

During SWANA, view a collection of outstanding short films from the Arab Film Festival, listen to beats non-political, non-religious and non-Eurocentric way. Enjoy Arabic dances by Heaven Mousalem and Chef Aliza’s unique Israeli spice blends.

Fantastic food programs include sampling dishes by Chef Aliza with her unique Israeli spice blends, Palestinian food tastings and hummus making classes. For younger audiences, enjoy Arabic dances by Heaven Mousalem and a special performance by the Shahrzad Dance Company. More live performances include Leila’s Quest for Flight by the Golden Thread.

Enjoy Arabic dances by Heaven Mousalem and Chef Aliza’s unique Israeli spice blends.

Jazz Riffs in Words and Pictures

The library is pleased to announce that Shane Evans will deliver the 22nd Annual Effie Lee Morris Lecture. Evans is best known as the author and illustrator of the Coretta Scott King Award-winning picture book Underground, a rich evocation of how it feels to be a slave on the way to freedom. Among his dozens of other titles are collaborations with his lifelong friend, actor and singer Taye Diggs on Chocolate Mel, Mixed Mel and other warmhearted picture stories. Evans is the recipient of an NAACP Image Award, a Boston Globe-Horn Book Honor award, and two Jane Adams Honor awards, one for Lillian’s Right to Vote (written by Jonah Winter) and the other for We March.

This annual event honors the late Effie Lee Morris by celebrating the work of writers and illustrators for children whose work exemplifies the causes she championed: inclusivity, diversity and the rights of all children to read, learn and create.

Ms. Morris was the first coordinator of children’s services at SFPL, the first African American president of the Public Library Association and a founder of the local chapter of the Women’s National Book Association (WNBA).

Sponsored by the Main Library’s Fishers-Children’s Center, Friends of the San Francisco Public Library and the San Francisco chapter of the WNBA, the event is free and open to all ages. A book-signing follows the presentation.

The Songs of Trees: Stories from Nature’s Great Connectors
by David George Haskell
When we listen to trees, natures great connectors, we learn how to inhabit the relationships that give life its source, substance and beauty.

The Water Will Come: Rising Seas, Sinking Cities, and the Remaking of the Civilized World by Jeff Goodell
An immersive, well-timed book about the drenching effects of global warming, and a powerful reminder that we can bury our heads in the sand about climate change for only so long before the sand itself disappears.

Junk Raft: An Ocean Voyage and A Rising Tide of Activism to Fight Plastic Pollution by Marcus Eriksen
An exciting account of an activist scientist’s unorthodox fight in the growing movement against plastic marine pollution and of his expedition across the Pacific on a home-made “junk raft.”

This Changes Everything: Capitalism vs. the Climate by Naomi Klein
An exploration of why the climate crisis challenges us to abandon the core “free market” ideology, restructure the global economy, and remake our political systems.

Kiss the Ground: How the Food You Eat Can Reverse Climate Change, Heal your Body & Ultimately Save Our World by Joshua Tickell
From Josh Tickell, one of America’s most celebrated documentary filmmakers, comes a fascinating, easy-to-follow blueprint for how eating in ways that nourish and regenerate the soil can not only help reverse global warming, but also bring greater vitality to our lives” (Wolfgang Fuchs).

Online Tool: Medicare Supplement Made Easy

Choosing Medicare Supplement (Medigap) Insurance can be confusing, but Weiss Ratings’ Personalized Medicare Supplement Insurance Planner provides an easy way to help you make informed decisions. Insurance companies charge dramatically different premium rates for the exact same benefit plans. Weiss Ratings provides step-by-step guidance on how to select a Medigap insurance plan and shows you which insurance company has the lowest rates. By simply entering your name, age, gender and zip code, you get immediate access to your own customized 80+ page information-packed Buyer’s Guide & Cost Calculator. Library card holders get free remote access to this essential online resource Access Weiss Ratings at sfpl.org/databases.
September Events and Exhibitions

Tender Souls in the Tenderloin
A new exhibit in the Library's Skylight Gallery explores the humanity of one of San Francisco's most misunderstood and often ignored neighborhoods, the Tenderloin. Riddled with severe homelessness, mental illness, drugs, violence and prostitution, the Tenderloin is often characterized as a major blight on one of the world's most attractive cities. However, beneath the surface rests a soul unlike any other community in the City.

Tender Souls, an exhibition by Brenton Gieser and Felix Uribe, highlights the lives of multiple community members through a series of photographic portraits from the Tender Souls Project. These photographs reflect the vibrancy, determination and soul of the Tenderloin community and show the extreme suffering, unspeakable trauma, triumphant redemption and unconditional love.

Exhibition: Tender Souls – Sept. 15–Jan. 13, 2019, Main Library, Skylight Gallery

Opening Event – Sept. 16, 1 p.m., Main Library, Koret Auditorium
The 14th Annual One City One Book selection is The Best We Could Do, a stunning graphic novel by Thi Bui. The Best We Could Do explores the anguish of immigration and the lasting effects that displacement has on a child. Bui’s dreamlike artwork brings to life her journey to understanding her own identity in a way that only illustrations can. Published by Abrams ComicArts, this is the first graphic novel that has been selected for One City One Book.

This year’s story is about the traumatic effects displacement has on families and the individual, and how you can help other Bay Area residents to think about and have thoughtful conversations about these issues, but also to take action. Check the book out now at a library near you and join us in October for book discussions, themed exhibits, author talks, and many other One City One Book events. For more information, including the program guide, visit sfpl.org/OneCityOneBook.

China Arts Festival

In partnership with the Chinese Consulate, the Library is excited to be a part of the 56th annual Across the Pacific—China Arts Festival, hosting a photo exhibit of the City of Wuhan, China and participating in the Chinese Film Festival. View 100 photos through the perspective of U.S. photographers, most of them engineers at leading high-tech companies. The exhibit incorporates holistic aspects of Wuhan—the old, the new, the traditional vs. the modern, and development vs. sustainability. Attend screenings (in Mandarin with English subtitles) of action, comedy and dramatic movies made in China.

Added Value: An Alternative Book Sale
In anticipation of the annual Friends of San Francisco Public Library’s Big Book Sale, SFPL’s Public Knowledge Branch inside of SFMOMA presents a one-of-a-kind event for book lovers. Misfit books find new life under unusual headings and in creatively curated pairings, available for $1-3 each. Forsaken tomes will be transformed in the artist-run “Revaluation Station.” A selection of new and classic library films play in the theater, and authors indulge us with readings in the branch. Join us for this unique day of imagination and fun, and discover the books you never knew you needed! Added Value is curated by Stephanie Syjuco, Megan and Rick Prelinger and the artist collective Related Tactics.

Admission is free to the public. Books are priced individually. Visit publicknowledge.sfmoma.org/added-value for details and full schedule.

Added Value – Sept. 22 – 23, 2018 (Friends member preview on Sept. 21), 10 a.m.–5 p.m., Public Knowledge Branch, SFMOMA, 151 Third Street
